Located on Joyner Avenue, this 34-acre park has exceptional facilities for Tennis. This facility has played host to several Mississippi Tennis Association state tournaments, Region 23 Junior College Tournaments, and the Charlie Close Invitational. This facility has 16-lighted courts, including four indoor courts during the winter months, a pro shop where players can buy anything needed to play tennis, and get their rackets restrung or repaired. There are also two pavilions where people can sit and enjoy watching tennis.

Rob Leake City Park

Because of the high level of hospitality, quality of area attractions, shopping, and accommodations, Tupelo continues to be a leading destination for our USTA League Tennis Championship events. The partnership between the Tupelo CVB, Tupelo Parks and Recreation, and the local tennis community creates an atmosphere for complete success for events of these kind.
